Mayor's Youth Council

Thomas M. Menino, Mayor of Boston

WHO???

- Boston Residents
- Teens entering their Junior or Senior year of high school
- Youth that want to make a difference!

WHAT???

What is the commitment?

- Volunteer 8-10 hours a month from June-May
- Attend 2 Tuesday evening 5:45-7:45pm meetings a month at City Hall, plus outreach and share resources with peers in your neighborhood.
- Work with Mayor Menino and other city leaders including the Police, Schools, Health, Sports, Recreation, Jobs...

What do MYC reps do?

- Meet with youth from around the city to identify issues and come up with positive solutions.
- Address issues in your community with city officials
- Involve teens in government, develop creative solutions, design programs, influence policy, connect teens to opportunities and participate in community service projects.
- Create your own community and/or citywide goals and work toward them with a supportive team!

MYC members get the opportunity to take on youth leadership roles, public speaking opportunities and make a great network of friends
